BSE/TSE statement

Dear valued customer,

This letter confirms that products provided by CleanMark are produced entirely with synthetic origin materials and are free of human and animal derived materials, including bovine products. In addition, there are no animal derived components used in material manufacturing and handling.

As such, we declare our products free of Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE) and Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathy (TSE).

Sincerely,

Cameron McKillop
